

A impressão deste material não é obrigatória.

- We use phrasal verbs in everyday language rather than formal language.
- We cannot usually guess the meaning from the combination of words.
- Some of them have more than one meaning.
- I came across this word in a magazine. (find by chance)
- What are you getting at exactly? (suggest)
- I won't stand for this behaviour any longer! (tolerate)
- It took me a long time to get over my illness. (recover from)
- The police are looking into the robbery (investigate)
- Will you look after the baby? (take care of)
- Anna takes after her mother. (looks or behave like)
- I ran into Tom the other day (meet by accident)
- Tom is heading for trouble. (go in the direction of)
- When I laughed, everyone joined in. (do the same activity)
- Let's run through the details. (explain)
- Try to carry out a 'task analysis'.
- Can you give in your homework now
- Can you fill in this form?
- You can leave out / miss out the next exercise.
- We're trying to sort out the problem.
- You can work out the answer for homework.
- Don't forget to turn off the lights.
- (do a piece of work)
- (give it to the teacher)
- (write information on it)
- (don't do it)
- (deal with)
- (find the solution)
- (stop using)
- We have put off the match until next week.
- The bus dropped off the students outside the school.
- Our teacher told us off because we were noisy
- Don't let down the team, will you!
- We'll come and pick up the others at 6.00.
- Susan brought up three orphan children.
- People say it's hard to give up smoking.
- You have to look up these words
- postponed)
- (take to a place)

- (criticize angrily)
- (disappoint by not doing what was promised)
- (collect in a car)
- (look after a child until it becomes an adult)
- (stop doing something)
- (find in a dictionary)
- The traffic builds up here every day
- My car has broken down again.
- It's important to speak out.
- What exactly is going on?
- The feeling of shock gradually wore off.
- Stop showing off!
- Jim always turns up late.
- Everything turned out all right in the end.
- (increase)
- (stop working)
- (be frank, give an opinion)
- (happen)
- (go away)
- (behave to attract attention)
- (arrive, often unexpectedly)
- (have a particular result)
- Have you come up with any ideas yet?
- When are you going to get round to your work?
- We've come up against a problem.
- She didn't get away with cheating in the exam.
- Maria has gone down with a bad cold.
- I can't put up with Alan! He annoys me!
- We want to do away with school uniform.
- I'm really looking forward to seeing you.
- Have you come up with any ideas yet?
- When are you going to get round to your work?
- We've come up against a problem.
- She didn't get away with cheating in the exam.
- Maria has gone down with a bad cold.
- I can't put up with Alan! He annoys me!
- We want to do away with school uniform.
- I'm really looking forward to seeing you.
- We've run out of milk again. The milk has run out. (have none left)
- I'll catch up with you later. Anna can't catch up. (go faster to reach someone)
- Do you get on with / along with David? Do you two get along? (have a good relationship with)
- I can't keep up with the class. I'm finding it hard to keep up. (go at the same speed as)